ON
6th and 8TH JULY 2021 (02:00 pm – 03:00 pm)

The virtual interactive session for Honors students of Economics department with Principal of the institution was organized by the Economics Department of Sikkim Government College, Burtuk on 6th and 8th July 2021. The faculty members from the department have taken utmost initiative to ensure that the students join the programme and take maximum advantage. Though it was through online platform (Google Meet), the programme was successfully conducted and was extremely fruitful for the students.

The session started with the welcome speech by the undersigned. At the beginning of session, Principal madam congratulated all the students for their capability of presenting their sessional paper at power point presentation. The students were apprised about the importance of COVID-19 Vaccination apart from sessional and end term examination. The students were ensured about adequate infrastructure and Library facilities in the coming times. The students were also made to understand the benefits of taking economics as an honors subject, which develops a wide range of analytical and critical thinking skills, which open up many diverse career opportunities. They were also motivated in other important aspects.

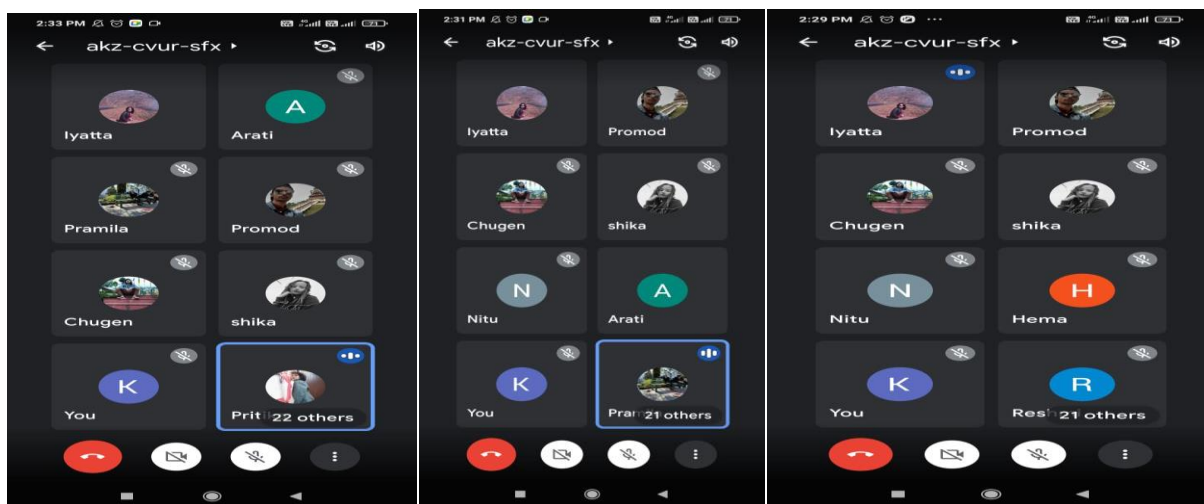

The session ended with intensive question/answer session and vote of thanks by Mr. Narendra Kharel-Assistant Professor and Mrs. Kessang Wangmo Bhutia-Assistant Professor respectively.

The session started at 2:00 pm and concluded effectively at 3:00 pm
